

5th Night of the Universal Wave, 21st Aug 2011. Truthfully manifesting your authentic self.

(Tenth 18 day cycle of Universal Wave – 5th Night = 18th August to 4th September 2011)

The 5th Night of the Universal Wave will bring a further shift to Oneness. Only through experiencing and seeing the separateness, can we make the choice to be one with all hearts. The ordered chaos of dualities growth has brought us to this incredible moment which through the challenge will manifest what is needed, we are always provided what we need to survive to the next stage. Creation is always on our side. Let go, allow and breath deep with love and gratitude. Trust with truth. Acceptance can be bliss.

Cycle ten is the darkest period of dark and in the plants life it is the growth of the bud. In your life it was puberty. This has been a time of great physical hardships or major conflict. Going back in time, the Illonian Ice Age, Neanderthals going extinct, World War II, the Great Depression of the 1930's and more recently the World markets finding challenges and crashing in 2008 were examples of this cycles energy.

We have come to that moment of giving birth on a spiritual plane. We are all born physically yet we are growing on so many levels that are converging to be attracted by the one light of Creator/Source. Resistance to the attraction causes friction for our feelings. And if we don't let go we feel our boiling emotional body. Which may invoke rage. Allow and go with the flow of Creation's Divine river of life. Look at what you have instead of what you don't have.

It seems there is divide of Mayan calendar perspectives. The divide is duality, which is two sides of the same coin. It will be interesting to see how this unfolds after the 28th October 2011.

I come back to the 9 level pyramids found throughout Central America and their purpose. This is what Dr. Carl Calleman's work is all about, as he with an open heart shares the synchronicity of an ancient dating system that was inscribed on a stone Stele in Coba thousands of years ago by the the ancient indigenous peoples of Central America. This system is so old that it got lost in time and went out of use. Ian X Lungolds work with his lectures sharing his perspectives on Carl's findings is what lead me to want to find out more for myself. I saw Ian's DVD presentation in May 2007. Here I learnt how the ancient Prophetic Mayan calendar works with the Tun based system that is 360 days in length. This is mapping the 360 degree revolution of the planets which in turn shows how the evolution of consciousness is coming back to center and consciously seeing itself so as for itself to make a choice to create a future that can only exist sacredly and in peace and harmony with what drives the infinite universe. This 360 day Tun Calendar is driven by the 260 day Tzolkin Mayan count.

For me, through wanting to understand the Mayan calendar passionately, I have been able to see and make a choice for myself regarding how all this information intuitively feels in my ancient heart. I feel it does not matter if it is right or wrong as only the minds duality will discern, yet the heart knows how to allow and let go to outcome and knows that everything is the result of lessons that we grow from. I have only gotten where I am through adventurously learning to trust my hearts inner guidance. It is time to stand up and connect with our ancient spirit, this is the ancient light that manifests from the void of Great Mystery.

With contemplating the immediate future I feel things could get worse so as for more of an awakening to happen and for the worlds inequality to even out, especially as is evident on the world financial markets and how volatile the global economies are showing themselves as being. It seems people are losing faith in each other to provide a solution to bring resolve. The universal wave says that a resolve of sorts will come in the 6th Day. And the 6th Night we apply ourselves with some sort of understanding. The fruit of the 7th day is in October and this will bear the seeds for the future. Now is the time to do the sacred work of consciously growing with the growth of Creation's Divine Plan of being one with all the infinite universe.

We are evolving towards a world that exists with truthful conduct and more and more we are seeing how if you are not aligned in this way, you are quickly seen and exposed.

The Cosmic Convergence event is happening in September and been called for by Dr Carl Johan Calleman www.calleman.com, It could be seen that this is a good time to sit in deep meditation, contemplating where we are and how we can collectively go forward. I feel, perhaps some sort of cosmic code will arrive within our genetic makeup. This will assist us as we continue to evolve to new heights of awareness. We will be holding the light here in England and I will share more about what we will be planning. Uniting the spirit of England with the cosmos. On 21st August 2011 it was 10-Road(Eb), I was in Greenwich on this day. I have since a month ago been displaying my ancient inspired rock art at the Greenwich Market. Greenwich is all about time, so it seems fitting that I am guided here from Cape Town. Within my Ancient Art I share aspects of the Mayan calendar.

The aspect of "Road" is symbolic of the path of life and is a day of conductor of destiny, opening to future. A good day to ask for ones path to be clear of envious beings and temptations from all directions. Every 13 days is an intention (representing the growth from seed to fruit), so with the number 10 , the frequencies of the center "Creator/Source" where emanating toward the intention of "challenge" which is subconsciously a sign for consciousness to let go, so as to manifest some sort of gift and the road was open to this. The number 10 is also symbolic of the 5th Night. The number 11 brings clarity and some sort of resolve, 12 is understanding and 13 completes. These numbers have driven Creation's intention from the infinite beginning in the form of pulsations from the Universal center. These pulsations are much like biorhythms that can record ones moods.

With linking the 5th Night and the 5th Day I connected in sacred ceremony and I did this by, on the last Full Moon in the 5th Day connecting sacredly with a global meditation where many peoples were energetically aligning with receiving and giving the unconditional love arriving within consciousness. And then in the 5th Night I connected again in ceremony on 9-Dog 20th August 2011. The 5th Day and Night are the lightest light and the darkest dark. The light, being the new consciousness and the dark being the application of the light. Through the challenge of the 5th Night we will manifest the gift.

Consciousness journeyed into the 5th Night from 6-Q'aniel(Rabbit/Star), the beginning of the crest of the Trecena 13 day wave of Akbal(Night). A time to give thanks to the Sky Earth in the Dawn hours, asking for renewal and resurrection as the Sun rises. The Golden Road is within our human understanding of the cosmos and this is a day to ask for sustenance and give thanks for the abundance we have. The first day of the 5th Night was 7-Toj(Water) Offering. A day to ask that the difficult situations in our lives be resolved, a day of the altars and shrines. Ask that our daily sacrifices come to fruition and prosperity.

For the first part of the 5th day we are shifting from the west in the Trecena 13 days aspect, allowing for recreating unity and dampened worldly ambition with Akbal(Night). After that we go to the south in the next 13 days with Cib(Owl/Vulture) be receptive to the cosmic forces. Washing away that which does not serve... All this is as we flow through the challenge of the 5th Night, we enter the clarity of the flowering in the 6th day in early September.

I feel that we are in for radical change which is going to happen as evolution brings us back to center through this ordered chaos of duality we are surfing. We are now soon going to be fully living with an understanding of what life is, we need to let go of our vices. The universe is limitless and does not understand ego centric material value we selfishly buy into. The future will be unhappy unless we change our view and confront who we are inside. Becoming conscious of self is the key. Becoming conscious of the fact that we are much more than physical. We come from and are of the Great Spirit that is manifest from Great Mystery. The feeling body has the answers as this connects our heart to the Great Spirit.

The reason why the Mayan calendar is seen as being prophetic is because we can read it and determine the future. Those that are Day Keepers are naturally gravitating to "seeing" from an intuitive sense, that is first felt from within. The Mayan Day Keepers are born into this and hence as much as they are chosen, the vibration of the center has chosen them to be way showers for the community. I honor the Maya for their loyalty of holding the light through carefully keeping count of the days, in sacred ceremony, for thousands of years and thus holding the balance of the evolution of Creation from within their Ancient Heart ,that we today are not separate from.

The physical world is the illusion that is purposefully trapping us so as to make a choice to see past it, into the other spiritual plains of reality. This is what consciousness is waking up to as it feels it in the heart which triggers the minds response. We are our heart, not our mind. Our ancient heart has been the one that has evolved from light, manifest from the light that shines out of the void of Great Mystery.

We are all learning to go with the flow of natures river. The river of acceptance, letting go, allowing, sacred action, trust with truth, forgiveness, selflessness, honor, respect, loyalty, permission, humility, ethics and universal Co Creation. If we swim upstream we will soon find out that it can be easier to let go and flow with trust that all will be provided for.

Living without a conscience is not only detrimental to self but also to those that live by the consciousness of ethical action. Excepting responsibility for our actions is of vital importance to setting ourselves free. We are becoming conscious of ourselves yet we cannot claim to be conscious of ourselves without knowing all our flaws. Through confrontation of what needs to be healed, our flaws will make themselves visible to our deeper selves and thus we will resonate our consciousness to new higher levels. We will grow quicker when we open our heart to being vulnerable and thus making allies with all our unresolved issues.

People constantly live in denial, if we deal with life we can make every aspect of life our ally and thus free ourselves from our vices. If we don't, our vices will magnify to such an extent that we will be pushed over the edge and feel the free falling of our spirit into the void of Great Mystery and before hitting the bottom we will wake up or once hitting the bottom we will be pushed to change with the universal changes that are evolving from within our ancient heart. The other option may be to just infinitely keep falling into uncertainty. This somehow does not feel right.

The past is a present from the future and is determined in the moment that manifests the present as a gift unto itself. Being conscious of an outcome before the arrival of the moment will help one to be centered and thus bring the ultimate gift of sacred balance. This will help with the alignment to the Source of the Infinite Universe. Learning to stalk ones actions.

What happens when the Mayan calendar ends on 28th October 2011?

Well, this is something we don't know yet maybe will feel. Life is all about feeling as this connects us to the infinite universe from within. The Mayan calendar is also within us, as what is within is the mirror of the without. I feel that no matter what happens we are in for some radical changes. We are evolving faster and faster toward center, the center is where we will be after 28th October 2011. From an ancient perspective I feel we will be aligned spiritually to the center of the infinite universe, or at least we will have the tools to do this after the 28th October 2011, so as to have the ability to be one with self. The center of the universe knows how to live sacredly and we will connect with that knowing. Many are waking up to this knowing. I feel that reality itself has changed so much for me as we get closer to the end date and after the end date reality will be clearer. We will see things for what they are without blinkers or filters, should i rather say that those that chose to will see things for what they are. Ignorance is not bliss. We are becoming more conscious of who we are and with this we are having to deal with things or else they will deal with us and from the Mayan calendars perspective after 28th Oct this will manifest instantly thus things may resolve themselves before the happen. The Mayan 9 level calendar will complete its process of growth and this will gift Creation the tools to live within itself, in peace, harmony and balance. All the shifts and big earthly challenges are the changes toward Oneness, with the universe. We are about to enter the universe and become part of the universal family of light that exists with love and is anything but separate. And lies within our heart connecting all hearts to Creator/Source.
